Prayers to Share

Monday, April 27, 2020

Loving God, today I pray a prayer of thanksgiving for our healthcare providers and caregivers. May they know how fervently we appreciate their wisdom and care, and may their hearts and minds find refreshment.

Tuesday, April 28, 2020

Today I pray for patience to balance my eagerness to end stay-at-home health orders. God, guide me to be a calm presence that supports the common good during the COVID-19 event.

Wednesday, April 29, 2020

God of all, I praise You for Your glory. May Your immeasurable love for us be revealed in our love and kindness for one another in this season of pandemic and recession.

Thursday, April 30, 2020

God of healing, I pray for all the victims whom have died or had their health impacted by the coronavirus outbreak. May government and health officials around the world collaborate to eliminate its escalation.

Friday, May 1, 2020

I pray to be reminded every day that we are all created in Your image, God. Lead me to convey my respect to each person I meet and to listen with an open heart that is free of judgment and condemnation.

Saturday, May 2, 2020

Merciful God, I ask You to be with me in the present moment so that I am not triggered by injustices that make me angry. Guide me to respond with rational thought and kindness rather than reacting in ways that hurt others.

Sunday, May 3, 2020

God of abundant love, guide me to look at the signs of the times, seek out others' needs, and respond with joyful service to anyone in need of help.
