Today I pray to learn about and take action against systems that harm my sisters and brothers simply because of their skin color.

Saturday, July 25, 2020

Today I ask for forgiveness when I’ve taken advantage at the expense of another. I pray for courage not to be silent or complacent in the face of discrimination.

Sunday, July 26, 2020

Ever-giving God, today I pray for houses of worship, for owners of small businesses, and for their employees, as they navigate the challenges of operation during this pandemic.
