LABOR DAY (U.S.) – Loving God, I am grateful for this day of rest for those who work to earn a living. I ask You to move lawmakers' hearts to create and enforce laws for just, living wages and equal pay for equal work.

As the school year has begun for most of the nation I ask You, God, to keep our children safe. Draw us together to see, help and heal those in emotional or cognitive distress.

Wednesday, September 9, 2020

Today I pray for nations and states that border the Atlantic and Caribbean as potent storms come their way. May those most vulnerable to danger and damage, remain safe and be enabled to recover.

God of mercy, bring relief and aid to those suffering in the path of the wildfires in California and the western United States.

ANNIVERSARY OF 9/11 ATTACKS – I pray for both the wounded and departed victims of terror attacks. May they heal in every possible way. O' God, look after them and their families.

Saturday, September 12, 2020

Today I lift up in prayer all displaced families who have been changed by natural disasters, poverty, violence, and climate change. Guide them to a new home that keeps them safe, prosperous and free from prejudice.

Sunday, September 13, 2020

Today I pray for people to have softer hearts for their brothers and sisters. Peel back the armor of our points of view that keep us separated. God, free people from any fear of loss that blocks us from caring for one another.
