Prayers to Share

Monday, September 21, 2020

God open my eyes to see past the present moment and take a long view at caring for our common home. Enable me to love future generations by being a good steward of Your creation today.

Tuesday, September 22, 2020

Today I pray for the eradication of systemic racism. Guide me as an advocate, voter and active participant in society to remove unjust structures that suppress people of color.

Wednesday, September 23, 2020

Today I pray for all the people around the globe who are impacted by the actions of our government and our corporations. We are all one body and need to care for each other.

Thursday, September 24, 2020

Loving God, open my eyes and heart to see the anguish of children who are abused, hungry and neglected. Lead me to advocate, take action and vote to end causes of their suffering.

Friday, September 25, 2020

Today I pray for all our brothers and sisters working in essential jobs, neighborhood clinics, and soup kitchens ministering to the most vulnerable among us.

Saturday, September 26, 2020

God of love, I pray You open my heart and mind to appreciate differences among us. Guide me to build a world where we can acknowledge that we are brothers and sisters.

Sunday, September 27, 2020

God of creation, I pray You protect all those whose lives are threatened by wildfires. I pray You keep safe all firefighters who work relentlessly to defend Your creation.
