Prayers to Share

Monday, November 9, 2020

Today I pray for a unified country where democracy reigns, and our founding principles and values have shared meaning, are practiced and respected.

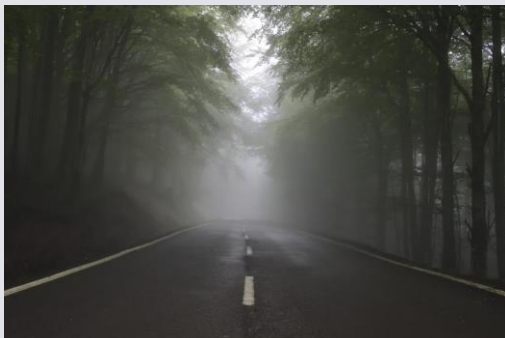

Tuesday, November 10, 2020

Unifying God, I pray that I may respond in love to the stress, anger and indifference that I encounter among family, friends and colleagues, wherever they are – at home, virtually, and in public spaces.

Wednesday, November 11, 2020

May today be Day One of a new unity in the U.S., with former divisions freshly healed by humility, wisdom, charity, grace and forgiveness.

Thursday, November 12, 2020

God of reconciliation, settle my heart and the hearts of my brothers and sisters as we find ways to be respectful to one another in a time of such uncertainty in our lives.

Friday, November 13, 2020

Enlighten all of us so that we may be different together. I pray for those who do not see people of color as equal. May all of us be open to treat one another in a dignified and respectful manner.

Saturday, November 14, 2020

Today I pray that any anxiety, stress or fear I may be feeling be overshadowed by the peace and trust You convey onto us through Your loving presence in our lives.

Sunday, November 15, 2020

God of healing, strengthen my spirit with patience and serenity so that I may reach out to others who may feel unheard or neglected.
