Healing God, I pray for the ability to look past my differences with the people I care about. I ask for the gift of mending broken relationships. Help me to be a unifier, not a divider.

Today I pray that I may find hope in the midst of uncertainty. Let anxiety transform into peace in the waiting, knowing You will care for us all. Renew my strength when it is time to act.

God of wisdom, enable me to speak wisely through social media. May my posts and comments always recognize the dignity in each of us and serve to bring people together, rather than tear them apart.

God of patience and mercy, on this day of Thanksgiving, I pray to follow Your example better with each day. Please help me to listen with an open heart, and to exert myself to build community and diminish disunity.

Today I pray for first responders, essential workers, and caregivers of the elderly, the disabled, and the young. May they find refreshment in Your unending care for them all.

Saturday, November 28, 2020

All-knowing God, I pray for discernment. Help me turn away from media that incites me to anger, fear, and disdain my brothers and sisters. Aid me in choosing pastimes that fill my heart with love for the dear neighbor.

Today I pray that You reveal ways in which I may care for those experiencing homelessness. Help me take the next step and act on what I learn.
