

Fact Sheet Sisters of Saint Francis

The Congregational Offices of the Sisters of Saint Francis, Rochester, MN, are located at Assisi Heights. Over half of the members of the Congregation reside at Assisi Heights, the others work and volunteer in Rochester and other Minnesota communities, as well as eight other U.S. states and in Colombia. In 2008, the Sisters opened the Assisi Heights Spirituality Center for use by the local civic community. The Sisters of Saint Francis wish to maintain a vital role in the development and support of the community, continuing the rich heritage begun over 140 years ago by Mother Alfred Moes.

Who Are the Sisters of Saint Francis?

Identity

The Congregation is referred to as the Sisters of Saint Francis, Rochester, Minnesota. The term Rochester Franciscans also indicates the participation of Cojourners in addition to vowed members (Sisters). Cojourning is a formal covenant between the Sisters of Saint Francis and women/men in the broader community. Sisters and Cojourners share a desire for spiritual growth in the Franciscan tradition, and support Franciscan values and concerns.

What Is Their Outreach?

Ministries

The Sisters of Saint Francis, as well as the Cojourners, are involved in a wide variety of ministries, which includes: teaching, healthcare, pastoral care, social justice, ecology, fine arts, missionary work, spiritual direction and others.

Where Are They Located?

Minnesota: A majority of the Congregation is located in Rochester and a few other communities within the state.

National: In addition to MN, the Sisters live and serve in eight other states: California, Colorado, Illinois, Missouri, New Mexico, South Dakota, and Texas.

International: Mission work is being done in Colombia, where the Sisters are known for the founding of two schools and a clinic. Currently, they are involved in the operation of one school in an economically challenged area of Bogotá. In Cambodia, the Sisters' ministry included founding a school to prepare men and women for careers in education. Although no Sisters have been in active ministry in Cambodia for several years, the school continues to this day.

Sharing Common Ground

Several organizations lease office and/or conference space at Assisi Heights. They include, but are not limited to: Mayo Clinic, SE MN Synod ELCA, Choral Arts Ensemble, Honors Choir, Rochester Academy of Music and the Southeastern MN Youth Orchestra (SEMYO).
