2024 Assisi Heights Retreats Sisters of Saint Francis - Rochester, MN

Thursday, May 16 (6:00pm) – Wednesday, May 22, 2024 (Noon)

Engaging the Mystery

Presented by:

John Petrikovic, OFM Cap.
Ramona Miller, OSF

It was written that Francis of Assisi could be heard in prayer asking, "Who are you, Lord, and who am I?" Clare of Assisi would use the word "ineffable" (inexpressible, indefinable) when contemplating God's love and goodness.

In both cases, their Franciscan journeys are marked by Mystery. We search to "know," even while we cannot understand. Our Franciscan hearts' desire to engage with mystery, the doorway to intimacy with God. During the retreat, we will engage the wonders we encounter in our human walk.

Part 1: Engaging God's Mystery

Thursday, May 16 at 6:00pm – Sunday, May 19 at Noon

Part 2: Engaging the Mystery of the Human Spirit

Sunday, May 19 at 6:00pm – Wednesday, May 22 at Noon

You may participate in these retreats via Zoom or join us in person at:

John Petrikovic, OFM Cap., is a Capuchin Franciscan friar priest in the Ministry of Preaching, offering workshops on Franciscan topics, mission formation for Franciscan Health Systems, retreats to Religious Men and Women in the English-speaking world and parish missions throughout the United States. He also is a senior staff presenter for the Franciscan Pilgrimages Program providing Franciscan study and prayer experiences in Assisi and Rome, Italy. As a musician, John has animated Liturgies for both National and International gatherings of Friars and Sisters.

Ramona Miller, OSF, has a wide experience in pastoral ministry in parishes—Director of Adult Faith Formation, Pastoral Associate—and retreat centers. For many years she was a staff member of the Franciscan Pilgrimages Program. Ramona served as Director of Spiritual Formation at the Franciscan School of Theology in Berkeley, California, 2002-2006, and a member of her congregation's leadership team, 2006-2012, and president, 2018-2022. She currently engages with the mystery of life as the canonical administrator for the Poor Clare Sisters residing at Assisi Heights.
